Microsoft OneDrive – enabled for all users, with feature lock for administrators.
Microsoft OneDrive button now appears between Google Drive and Bookshare buttons.

Opening a document from OneDrive
The first time you click the OneDrive button you will be asked to login to your Microsoft OneDrive account and give permission to Kurzweil3000.com to access your account.

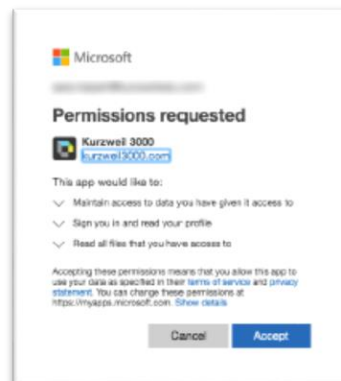

You can also choose whether to stay logged in or not.

When the OneDrive window opens, you can:
- View files and folders
  (Only file types that can be opened in Kurzweil3000.com will be visible. Non-supported file types will not appear in the list.)
- Sort by Name, Modified date, Modified by, or File Size
- Switch accounts
- Add a New Folder
- Upload a file or folder by using the Upload button.
  (You can upload any file types, but only supported file types will be visible in the list.)
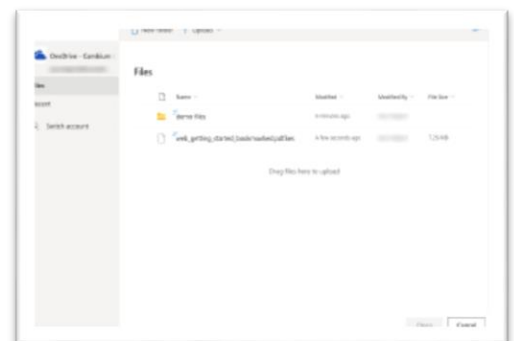

When you open a file from OneDrive, it is just like any other document you open in www.kurzweil3000.com and has all of the same tools available.

NOTE: If you click away from the OneDrive window it may become hidden behind your browser window. To bring it back, restore down your browser using the controls in the upper right, then click the OneDrive window to bring it forward.
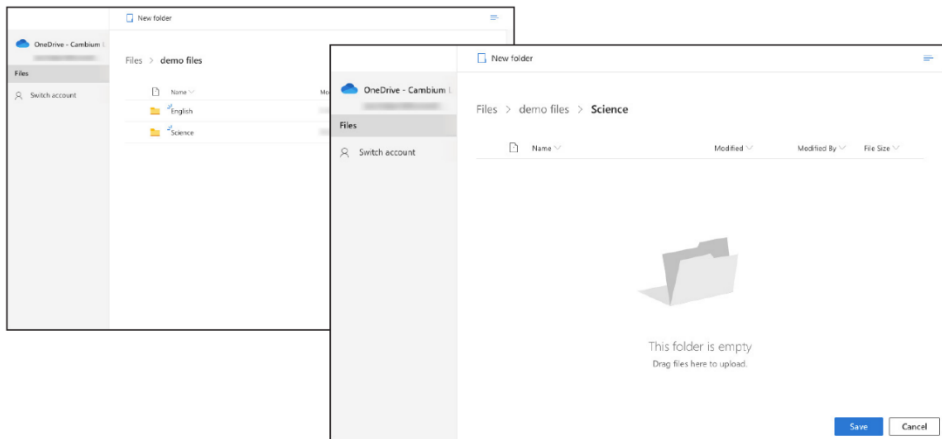

Save content to Microsoft OneDrive

Click the Save button and choose Save to OneDrive.
When the OneDrive window opens, you can:
- Select the folder where you would like to save the file
- Sort by Name, Modified date, Modified by, or File Size
- Switch accounts
- Add a New Folder

The selected folder status will always show as empty, even when it isn't.

Click the Save button to name the file and choose the file type.

OneDrive Feature Lock

The lock is under My Account > Users > Team Features Locks > Online
