Introduction

Kurzweil Educational Systems is pleased to release the Classic Literature CD Version 4.

The Classic Literature CD is a portable library of approximately 1,800 electronic texts, selected from public domain material available from Web sites such as www.gutenberg.net. You can easily access the CD's contents from any of Kurzweil Educational Systems products: Kurzweil 1000™, Kurzweil 3000™ for the Apple® Macintosh® and Kurzweil 3000 for Microsoft® Windows®.

Some examples of the CD's contents are:

- ◆ Literary classics by Jane Austen, Geoffrey Chaucer, Joseph Conrad, Charles Dickens, Fyodor Dostoyevsky, Hermann Hesse, Henry James, William Shakespeare, George Bernard Shaw, Leo Tolstoy and Oscar Wilde.
- ◆ Children's classics by L. Frank Baum, Brothers Grimm, Rudyard Kipling, Jack London, and Mark Twain.
- ◆ Classic texts from Aristotle and Plato.
- ◆ Scientific works such as Einstein's "Relativity: The Special and General Theory."
- ◆ Reference materials, including world factbooks, famous speeches, history resources, and United States law.
- ◆ Religious texts.

How the Contents are Organized

The top level of the CD contains a folder for each letter of the alphabet as well as topic names, such as European History, Religious Texts, and Unknown for anonymous works. Each alphabetic or topic folder holds folders named by author or sub-topic. These folders hold subfolders or text files based on the units, chapters, or other natural division of the material.

The Contents list beginning on page 4 of this guide provides the names of the Authors and Topics, along with the titles contained in those folders.

Note: If you are using the Kurzweil 3000 for the Macintosh, some author, topic or file names presented to you may differ from those listed in this guide (for example, they may be abbreviated).

Accessing the Electronic Texts

It's recommended that you copy the files you want from the CD to your system.

---

To copy the CD's contents to your PC or Mac:

1. Insert the CD into the system's CD-ROM drive.
2. If you are using a PC, double-click on My Computer. If you are using a Macintosh, go to the next step.
3. Double-click the Classic Literature CD icon.
4. Click and drag the desired folders or text documents to the folder in which you want to store them.

To copy electronic texts in Kurzweil 1000:

1. Insert the CD into the system's CD-ROM drive.
2. Choose the Copy command from the File Utilities menu (Alt +F +U +C). The File Copy From dialog opens with the cursor in the Folders list.
3. Navigate to the CD-ROM drive letter by using the Arrow keys. You should hear Kurzweil 1000 announce the drive letter and indicate that the folder contains folders.
4. Press the Right Arrow key to go to the alphabetical folders list. Navigate to and select the file you want to copy.
5. Press the Enter key to copy the file. The File Copy To dialog opens with the cursor in the file name text box.
6. Do one of the following:
  - ◆ Type the path name of a new or existing folder or file to which you want to copy the file.
  - ◆ Press Shift +Tab two times to go to the Folders list, then use the Arrow keys to navigate to the location where you want the file placed. If you want to change the name of the file, press Tab twice and type the new name.
7. Press the Enter key. Kurzweil 1000 will tell you when the copy is completed.

Contents List

The remainder of this guide provides a listing of authors, topics and titles available on the CD.

Note: Author, topic and file names in the list reflect the names presented in Kurzweil 1000 and Kurzweil 3000 for Windows. They may differ in Kurzweil 3000 for the Macintosh.

The order in which the titles are presented may also differ.
